2010 NFL DRAFT RECAP:

DAY:1 With the 8th pick in the 2010 NFL Draft, The Oakland Raiders select Rolando McClain LB Alabama.

I really like the pick. He will really help our defense right away.

DAY:2 Clearly we were focused on making our run defense better with the selection of Lamar Houston DL in the second round with the 44th overall pick, as we traded down and picked up some additional picks. In the third round we picked OT Jared Veldheer 69th overall. He is a Division II All-American at Hillsdale

College. He will be a work in progress, but he stands 6-8 so hopefully he will adjust well to the NFL. DAY:3 We went after another BIG OT when we drafted Bruce Campbell 106th overall. Many experts had the Raiders selecting Campbell 8th overall because of how he performed at the 2010 Scouting combine. We picked WR Jacoby Ford 108th, while trading LB Kirk Morrison to the Jags. Our draft finished with CB Walter McFadden 138th, CB Jeremy Ware 215th, & S Stevie Brown with 251st pick. We also added another QB to the mix, as we traded our 4th round pick in next years draft to the Redskins for QB Jason Campbell. The Raiders also gave Campbell a 1 year extension, keeping him in Oakland through the 2011 season. I feel like this our best draft in years. I give them an A. I'm glad we able to help on both sides of the ball. What really impressed me is that we didn't reach for a player early based on speed and strength. GO RAIDERS. I can't wait for the home opener.

6th YEAR ANNIVERSARY PARTY

We have rescheduled our Anniversary Party for May 22nd 2010. It will be held at Rohr Park. It will begin at 11 AM-5 PM. We hope you all can join us as we celebrate our 6th year as an Officially Recognized Oakland
